Professional Experience

CEO and Co-Founder | Typetura

OCTOBER 2019 – PRESENT

Bootstrapped Typetura, an innovation and design studio, where I worked with startups and global multinationals to identify and provide exceptional design value. Developing and implementing brand experiences and design systems to help companies and startups achieve their goals.

KEY CLIENTS & PROJECTS

A New Social | Brand System

2025

Created comprehensive brand guidelines for A New Social, an organization leading next-generation social media interoperability, with versatile typography, iconography, and imagery that showcases their service across multiple platforms.

Google Fonts | Consulting

2025

Invited by Google Fonts to share my deep knowledge on qualities of type design, informing their roadmap and business strategy.

WeDistribute | Brand System and Web Design

2024

Created a comprehensive brand system and website design for WeDistribute, establishing it as the leader in covering distributed social media platforms, driving visibility and growth.

Google Chrome | Consulting

2023

Contributed specification explainers to the W3C, informing functionality added to the CSS Values and Units Module.

EL Education | Design System Implementation

2022

Modernized the front-end of EL Education's website with a bold new look and highly accessible architecture to house over 15,000 pages of content and achieve a perfect 100 accessibility score in Google Lighthouse.

Instructor | Cooper Union

JANUARY 2022 - PRESENT

Mentors and empowers students worldwide with the skills they need to create compelling and impactful digital storytelling experiences, returning those skillsets to their retrospective companies, including Apple, McKinsey, and Google.

Lead Product Designer | Mariana Tek

MAY 2018 – OCTOBER 2019

Led design on client-side products for Mariana Tek, coordinating with multiple teams, including sales, research, product, development, and the C-suite to resolve ambiguity and build consensus. Increased the velocity of the product team 3x by creating and implementing a design system, culminating in a positive feedback loop between sales and product, growing the business to be a global leader in the fitness space.

Senior Product Designer | Accenture

SEPTEMBER 2017 - MAY 2018

I designed lifesaving products for the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, including the Patient Advocacy Tracking System (PATs). Using a human-centered design approach to break down the complex problems veterans and advocates faced, I designed a system that directly supported over 680 VA Patient Advocates and affected 8.84 million veterans annually.

Principal Product Designer | Vox Media

APRIL 2012 – JUNE 2017

Created innovative storytelling experiences and lucrative revenue streams that fueled Vox Media's growth and swift expansion from a network of sports blogs to 20 business verticals. I worked across multiple brands and directly with partners to highlight unique content.

KEY PROJECTS

Concert Ad Platform | Prototype, Design, and Development

2012, 2016 – 2017

Created the Concert advertising platform at Vox Media, reaching over 90% of the online audience in the U.S. and driving more than $20 million YoY in revenue. Guided by the belief that ads should elevate experiences, I prototyped the new ad format. To increase profitability and scale, I leveraged data-informed design decisions to iterate on and expand our suite of ad products to over 80 partners, including Condé Nast, Comcast, and NBC, while standardizing ad formats to alleviate the burden on our creative team.

Chorus | Design and Front-End Development

2015

Created a new evolution of Vox Media's publishing platform, building trust and fostering collaboration amongst editorial partners. In this effort, I made a design system and pattern library to deliver a consistent and reliable interface for our partners.

Vox | Design and Front-End Development

2014

Achieved launch in just 9 weeks, reaching an audience of 5 million unique visitors in the first month.

Design Director | Treesaver

APRIL 2010 - APRIL 2012

Working with renowned editorial designer Roger Black, I created highly interactive algorithmically designed layouts for Sporting News, The International Consortium of Investigative Journalists, and Nomad Editions.

Draftsman | Darden Studio

MARCH 2008 - APRIL 2010

Designer | Very Memorable Inc.

APRIL 2006 – MARCH 2008
