EL Education | Design System Implementation

2022

Modernized the front-end of EL Education's website with a bold new look and highly accessible architecture to house over 15,000 pages and achieve a perfect 100 accessibility score in Google Lighthouse by implementing a new design system.

Instructor | Cooper Union

JANUARY 2022 - PRESENT

Mentors and empowers students worldwide with the skills they need to create compelling and impactful digital experiences, returning those skillsets to their retrospective companies, including Apple, McKinsey, and Google.

Lead Product Designer | Mariana Tek

MAY 2018 – OCTOBER 2019

Led design on client-side products for Mariana Tek, coordinating with sales, research, product, and development to resolve ambiguity and build consensus. Increased the velocity of the product team 3x by creating and implementing a design system, culminating in a positive feedback loop between sales and product, growing the business from national to global.

Senior Product Designer | Accenture

SEPTEMBER 2017 - MAY 2018

I designed lifesaving products for the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, including the Patient Advocacy Tracking System (PATs). Using a human-centered design approach to break down the complex problems veterans and advocates faced, I designed a system that directly supported over 680 VA Patient Advocates and affected 8.84 million veterans annually.

Principal Product Designer | Vox Media

APRIL 2012 – JUNE 2017

Created innovative storytelling experiences and lucrative revenue streams that fueled Vox Media’s growth and swift expansion from a network of sports blogs to 20 business verticals. Developed storytelling systems to create more sustainable workflows.

KEY PROJECTS

Concert Ad Platform | Prototype, design, and development

2012, 2016 – 2017

Created the Concert advertising platform at Vox Media, reaching over 90% of the online audience in the U.S. and driving more than $20 million YoY in revenue. Guided by the belief that ads should elevate experiences, I prototyped the new ad format. To increase profitability and scale, I leveraged A/B testing and data-informed design decisions to iterate on and expand our suite of ad products to over 80 partners, including Condé Nast, Comcast, and NBC, while standardizing ad formats to alleviate the burden on our creative team.

Vox | Design and Front-End Development

Achieved launch in just 9 weeks, reaching an audience of 5 million unique visitors in the first month.

Design Director | Treesaver

APRIL 2010 - APRIL 2012

Working with renowned editorial designer Roger Black, I created highly interactive algorithmically designed layouts for Sporting News, The International Consortium of Investigative Journalists, and Nomad Editions.

Draftsman | Darden Studio

MARCH 2008 - APRIL 2010

Designer | Very Memorable Inc.
